

ISABELLE ARCHER

123 Jordan Avenue • Durham, NC 27705 • (919) 124-6236
isabelle.archer@law.duke.edu

EDUCATION

DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, Durham, NC

Candidate for J.D., May 2007

Honors: IOLTA Grant for North Carolina Public Interest Work

Activities: Journal of Gender Law and Policy, Staff Editor

Innocence Project, Participant

Dedicated to Durham, Organizer and Participant

Hardt Cup Moot Court Tournament, Participant

HOPE COLLEGE, Holland, MI

B.A., summa cum laude, Political Science and Religious Studies, May 2004

Honors: Class Salutatorian

Phi Beta Kappa

Make a Difference, Inc. Fellowship

Faculty Scholarship for Achievement

Activities: Hope for HOPE Tutoring Program, student coordinator

Holland Blind Center, reader and weekly DJ

Upper Michigan Peninsula Cross Country Ski Team

Thesis: Has Religion Become the Unwitting Pawn of the PACs?

EXPERIENCE

O'FARRELL & ASHLEY LLP, Atlanta, GA

Summer Associate, Summer 2006

Researched issues related to labor and employment law which were incorporated into court filings. Drafted a Response that was filed in an administrative hearing. Wrote a Position Statement that was filed with the EEOC. Wrote the initial draft of a brief regarding the constitutionality of a section of the Georgia Labor Pool Act. Attended weekly training sessions covering such legal areas as elder law, bankruptcy, and securities regulation. Assisted in deposition preparation of clients.

NORTH CENTRAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM, Durham, NC

Intern, Summer 2005

Conducted client intake interviews. Researched issues in domestic, consumer, housing and benefits practice areas. Prepared court papers and accompanied staff attorneys to various court proceedings and client meetings.

PROFESSOR HENRY JAMES, Durham, NC

Research Assistant, Summer 2005

Researched local land use decisions in context of recent constitutional decisions in preparation for publication of new property treatise. Drafted lengthy memoranda for ultimate inclusion in regional CLE handbook.

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT, Chicago, IL

Clerk, Summer 2004

Oversaw reorganization of massive filing archives, dating to 1800s. Managed complex computer software as part of electronic transfer of information.