

2nd Annual
Duke Law International Week
Sunday, October 27 - Saturday, November 2, 2002

International Week events*:

(Events sponsored by organizations listed in red.)*

Sunday, October 27

3:00PM, Law School Volleyball Court

- International Sports Sunday (DBA, ILS, BLS, PALS)
 - An afternoon of volleyball, international music, American beer, and games for kids!
 - The law school community is invited to celebrate the start of International Week with music and drinks by the volleyball court.
 - Joint JD and LLM teams compete in volleyball matches.
 - Fun and Games for Kids from around the world to interact.

Monday, October 28

6:20 PM, Room 3043

- Film Feature: "The Trials of Henry Kissinger" (JD/LLM Program)
 - Followed by discussion with Professor Michael Byers.

Tuesday, October 29

9:30-10:15AM, 3rd Floor Loggia

- Croissants et Café avec les Deans (Student Affairs)
 - Join the law school administration for croissants et café as we kick off International Week.
 - Catered by Guglhupf (local German bakery).

12:10 PM, Room 3043

- Practicing Law Around the World (Career Services)
 - Join a panel of 5 international students as they speak about practicing law in their home countries.

Wednesday, October 30

8:00AM-8:45AM, Blue Lounge

- Coffee Talk, International Law (Career Services, JD/LLM Program)
 - Conversation on international careers with Professor Joost Pauwelyn
 - Prior to joining the Duke Law faculty, Professor Pauwelyn worked with the World Trade Organization in Geneva in the Legal Affairs Division and in the Appellate Body Secretariat.
 - Professor Pauwelyn's areas of concentration are international economic law, in particular, the law of the World Trade Organization, public international law and European Union law.

12:10 PM, Room 3043

- JD/LLM Program Distinguished Speaker (JD/LLM Program)
 - Ambassador James Joseph, US Ambassador to South Africa, 1996-1999
 - In recognition of Ambassador Joseph's contributions, South African President Thabo Mbeki awarded him the Order of Good Hope, the highest honor the Republic of South Africa bestows on a citizen of another country.
 - A Louisiana native, Ambassador Joseph is also a former civil rights activist in Alabama.

6:00 PM, Room 3043

- Cultural Extravaganza (International Studies, DBA, ALSA, BLSA, HLSA, ILS, JLSA)
 - Celebrate the diversity of our law school community through the Cultural Presentation and Fashion Show.
 - Reception to follow on 3rd Floor Loggia.

Thursday, October 31

12:10PM, Blue Lounge

- International Showcase, Part 1 (International Studies)
 - LLMs display and present information, music and videos regarding the amazing people, places, histories of their home countries.

Friday, November 1

12:10PM, Blue Lounge

- International Showcase, Part 2 (International Studies)
 - LLMs display and present information, music and videos regarding the amazing people, places, histories of their home countries.

7:30 PM, 4th Floor Cinemas 1,2,3,4

- International Film Night: LLM Film Critic Circle (ILS, DBA)
 - Choose between a selection of 4 LLM top-rated films shown in the law school.
 - Movie popcorn and drinks will be served!

Saturday, November 2

4:30 PM Set-up, 5:30PM Judging, 7:00 PM Fiesta!, Courtyard

- International Food Fiesta (DBA, ALSA, BLSA, Golf Club, HLSA, ILS, JLSA, PALS, PILF, WLSA)
 - Savor authentic ethnic delights such as sushi, feijoada, beef rendang, satay, Korean barbecue, pan-cit, and enchiladas, as well as local specialties such as cheese grits or vegemite sandwiches.
 - Enjoy International Wine and Beer Tasting Stations!
 - Win prizes such as Best Overall, Spiciest, Most Unusual, Best Vegetarian, Best American, Best Presentation, Best Dessert, Least Likely to Start a Restaurant, Most Kid-Friendly Dish, Greenest Dish.
(Guess which prize category is sponsored by the Golf Club!)
 - Grand Prize: Two roundtrip tickets to anywhere in North America (including Continental U.S., Canada, Caribbean and Mexico)! Generously sponsored by USAirways.
 - $250 grant from Student Affairs goes to the Student Organization with the most entries!
 - Admission:
 - Bring your favorite ethnic dish, serving at least 12 people
 - OR, $5 in advance or $7 day of event
 - So... bring a dish, you get in free!!!

All week long...

- In Café JDs, sample regional specialties from Chef Extraordinaire Michel
(that would be Mike!)
- In the Blue Lounge, view the “International Showcase!”
 - LLMs display information, music and videos regarding the amazing people, places, histories of their home countries.